

April 20 2011

The Ring of Solomon

Author:

Jonathan Stroud

Reading Level: Grades 6-8

The Bartimeaus trilogy chronicled the demon's misadventures while under the control of an 11-year-old magician. In this prequel Stroud shares one of the djinni's earlier adventures as the very reluctant slave of the evil Khaba, an ambitious magician in the court of King Solomon who rules Jerusalem with the help of the powerful slave of the ring.

As usual Bartimeaus's intelligence and snarky attitude land him in a world of trouble after he rescues Asmira, a "hereditary guard" who was sent by the Queen of Sheba to assassinate Solomon, from desert bandits. Instead of eating her, he spares her life setting into motion a disastrous series of events which may well result in the end of the ancient world.

Check availability of this book

More books by Jonathan Stroud

For another entertaining djinn series try::

The Akhenaten Adventure by P.B. Kerr

YS Book Level:

6th Grade

7th Grade

8th Grade

YS Locations:

JY Fiction

YS Reviewers:

SJS

YS Genres:

Adventure

Books for Boys

Fantasy

Humor

Supernatural

Source URL: <http://www.hplibrary.org/kids/reviews/ringofsolomon?page=25>