

February 21 2012

School for Bandits

Author:

Hannah Shaw

Reading Level: PreK-1

Ralph isn't a normal raccoon - he doesn't like being messy, or rude. So his parents ship him off to Bandit School, where Ralph is the worst student of all. He's just awful at everything, and when the term ends, his teacher assigns a competition - whoever has the largest sack of loot after vacation wins the Best Bandit prize. Ralph isn't interested, not one bit. He stays in his room reading over the break, not wanting to get in anyone's way. But then something happens on his way back to school, and Ralph becomes the best!

Check availability of this book

More books by Hannah Shaw

YS Book Level:

Preschoolers

Kindergarteners

1st Grade

YS Locations:

Picture Books

YS Reviewers:

EF

YS Genres:

Animals--Talking

Misfits

School

Social Issues

Source URL: <https://www.hplibrary.org/kids/reviews/schoolforbandits?page=6>