Mr Pants: Slacks, Camera Action! by Scott McCormick

Reading Level: Grades 1-4

The good news: There is a movie contest that will earn the winner $1000 and a trip to Hawaii.

The bad news: The entry must be submitted in less than 24 hours.

Undeterred, Mr. Pants frantically navigates chores (his mom insists,) annoying little sisters and an obligatory tea party to create his masterpiece.

The Flying Beaver Brothers and the Evil Penguin Plan by Maxwell Eaton

The Bad Guys by Aaron Blabey

Mr. Wolf has a bad reputation. None of it is his fault. No matter what the three pigs and Little Red Riding Hood (not to mention Grandma) say, Wolf is a good guy. He just has to show the world his good guy nature. So he forms the "Good Guys Club" and recruits Mr. Shark, Mr. Snake and Mr. Piranha as the other founding members. Despite their unfortunate instincts to attack and eat anything that comes their way, Mr. Wolf is sure all four of them can prove their goodness to the world...they just need the right mission.

Quit Calling Me a Monster! by Jory John

Reading Level: Ages 3 - 6

Just because he has horns, wild eyes, fangs, crazy hair, long toenails and a glow in the dark smile is NO REASON to call this poor maligned creature a monster. After all, he doesn't call you Meat Snack does he?
