

June 11 2012

Bigger Than a Bread Box

Author:

Laurel Snyder

Reading Level: Grades 4 - 6

Rebecca's life is turned upside down when her mother, without warning, takes Rebecca and her little brother away from their father and home and moves them in with their grandmother. Upset when she learns that this is not a short trip, but a permanent relocation Rebecca goes to the attic to sulk and finds a magic bread box. If she wishes for something that is real AND which will fit inside the bread box, the box will give it to her. But magic, no matter how harmless it seems at the time, always comes with a price.

Check availability of this book

More books by Laurel Snyder

YS Book Level:

4th Grade

5th Grade

6th Grade

YS Locations:

J Fiction

YS Reviewers:

SH

YS Genres:

Adventure

Books for Girls

Family

Fantasy

Friends

Self Image

Source URL: <https://www.hplibrary.org/kids/reviews/breadbox?page=6>