

January 17 2011

Saraswati's Way

Author:

Monika Schroder

Reading Level: Grades 5 - 7

After his father dies, 12-year-old Akash's grandmother turns him over to the cruel owner of a quarry to work off the family's debt. Oppressed by the unbearable working conditions and the realization that the loan will never be paid off, Akash runs away to Delhi where he struggles to survive on his own.

I you enjoyed this tale of a third world kid surviving on his own, try:

I Am a Taxi by Deborah Ellis,

Trash by Andy Mulligan and

AK by Peter Dickinson

Check availability of this book.

Other books by Monika Schroder

YS Book Level:

5th Grade

6th Grade

7th Grade

YS Locations:

JY Fiction

YS Reviewers:

SJS

YS Genres:

Adventure

Books for Boys

Realistic Fiction

Source URL: <https://www.hplibrary.org/kids/reviews/saraswati?page=25>