

March 15 2011

Pathfinder

Author:

Orson Scott Card

Reading Level: Grade 7+

Card, the author of the beloved Ender Wiggins series, scores again with this new series. 13-year-old Rigg has lived an isolated life with his demanding father hunting and trapping in the wilderness. Despite their isolation, Rigg's father has given his son an exceptional education in languages, science, and psychology. He has also pushed Rigg to hone his unusual path-finding skills.

When his father suddenly dies, Rigg must make his way alone in a hostile world...one that takes a very dim view of a boy with exceptional powers.

If you enjoyed this sophisticated science fiction adventure, try:

The Knife of Never Letting Go by Patrick Ness

Enchantress From the Stars by Sylvia Engdahl

Check availability of this book.

Other books by Orson Scott Card

YS Book Level:

7th Grade

8th Grade

High Schoolers

Adults

YS Locations:

JY Fiction

YS Reviewers:

SJS

YS Genres:

Books for Boys

Science Fiction

Source URL: <https://www.hplibrary.org/kids/reviews/pathfinder?page=22>