

March 15 2011

Roller Skates

Author:

Ruth Sawyer

Reading Level: Grades 4 - 6

When ten-year-old Lucinda's parents decide to travel to Italy for a year, they drop Lucinda off at a sort of temporary orphanage in New York. Undaunted, Lucinda straps on her roller skates and begins skating around the city, making friends as she goes. Most of these friends would be frowned upon by her stuffy Aunt Emily (who Lucinda must spend every Saturday sewing with) because of either their age or their status in life, but cheerful Lucinda doesn't mind, and befriends anyone she meets.

Lucinda's cheerful nature and desire for every single one of her friends to experience happiness and good fortune seeps off the page and into your heart in this beautifully told 1937 Newbery winner.

Check availability of Roller Skates

More books by Ruth Sawyer

You might also like:

The Evolution of Calpurnia Tate by Jacqueline Kelly

The Willoughbys by Lois Lowry

The Wheel on the School by Meindert DeJong

Thimble Summer by Elizabeth Enright

YS Book Level:

4th Grade

5th Grade

6th Grade

YS Locations:

J Fiction

YS Reviewers:

EF

YS Genres:

Award Winners

Books for Girls
Don't Miss These

Source URL: <https://www.hplibrary.org/kids/reviews/rollerskates?page=22>