

April 20 2011

The Things a Brother Knows

Author:

Dana Reinhardt

Reading Level: Grade 7-9

Boaz Katznelson was a great athlete, talented student and all round high school golden boy. He was accepted to Cornell, Berkley, Tufts and Columbia Universities. His family was stunned when he announced he wasn't going to college, he was enlisting in the Marines. Soon Boaz was overseas?after a few months, he stopped writing home. When Boaz finally came home, he walked straight upstairs and shut the door. He hasn't been out in three weeks. Levi and his parents have waited three long years for Boaz's return. But he is no longer the brother Levi thought he knew. Even if nobody else wants to see it, Levi knows something is seriously wrong.

When Boaz announces he's off to hike the Appalachian Trail, Levi knows he's lying. So Levi follows, hoping to figure out how to save the brother he once adored.

Check availability of this book

More books by Dana Reinhardt

Other stories of difficult brothers include:

Tangerine by Edward Bloor

sleeping Freshmen Never Lie by David Lubar and

Fighting Ruben Wolfe by Marcus Zusak

YS Book Level:

7th Grade

8th Grade

YS Locations:

JY Fiction

YS Reviewers:

SJS

YS Genres:

Adventure

Books for Boys

Family

Realistic Fiction

Relationships

Source URL: <https://www.hplibrary.org/kids/reviews/thingsabrotherknows>