

May 4 2011

Deadly

Author:

Julie Chibbaro

Reading Level: Grades 7-9

16-year-old Prudence Galewski knows she should be grateful to be a scholarship student at Mrs. Browning's School for Girls but she finds her lessons in typing, literature and deportment oppressive. Prudence doesn't want to be a wife and mother or a secretary at a bank. She wants to know what causes diseases and how to prevent them even though girls in the early 19th century were not supposed to be interested in such unladylike things.

Prudence gets her chance when she is hired as Mr. Soper's assistant at the New York Department of Health and Sanitation. But soon Prudence has reason to doubt the wisdom of her career path when an investigation of a string of typhoid cases leads her and Mr. Soper down a path of controversy and danger.

Check availability of this book

More books by Julie Chibbaro

Other historical stories of strong young women include:

A Northern Light by Jennifer Donnelly

Parade of Shadows by Gloria Whelan and

The Evolution of Calpurnia Tate by Jacqueline Kelly

YS Book Level:

7th Grade

8th Grade

High Schoolers

YS Locations:

JY Fiction

YS Reviewers:

SJS

YS Genres:

Books for Girls

Historical Fiction

Social Issues

Source URL: <https://www.hplibrary.org/kids/reviews/deadly?page=17>