

Sioux Buffalo Hunt

Library Art

Paha Ska (Native American, 1923-2005)

Sioux Bufflao Hunt, 1978

Oil on canvas

47 ¼ x 97 ½ in.

Gift of Joan and Bud Towne, The Squash Blossom Gallery

Paha Ska was a contemporary Native American artist and a member of the Ogalla Sioux tribe. He resided in Keystone, South Dakota for nearly 50 years. Phah Ska means "White Hills" in English. Ska is a self-taught artist who attempted to portray an Indian way of life in his work.

Source URL: <https://www.hplibrary.org/sioux-buffalo-hunt?size=thumbnail>