

July 23 2011

Glitz

Author:

Philana Marie Boles

Reading Level: Grades 7+

Ann Michelle has a quiet life, living with her grandma, going to school, hanging with her friends, listening to hip hop music and lusting after the artists. Everything changes when Rachel, who insists everyone call her Raq to acknowledge the rock star that she is, crashes into Ann Michelle's life. Raq is everything Ann Michelle isn't - she's sassy, loud, confident, boisterous, and (according to Ann Michelle's grandma) dangerous. But Ann Michelle likes the person Raq brings out of her, and one night, she sneaks out to go to a concert with her new friend. True to her rock star lifestyle, Raq scores the girls backstage passes, and soon Ann Michelle finds herself face to face with her favorite hip hop artist, Piper. Ann Michelle introduces herself to him as Glitz, and with that first simple lie, her personality whirlwinds into a sexy, confident, bold girl. When Piper and his entourage invite Raq and Glitz to the recording studio with them, the old Ann Michelle's propriety and adherence to rules are squashed. Before she realizes it, the girls are on their way to New York City with Piper and his crew to record a big demo, which Raq hopes she will push her way onto. The further she gets from home, the more Glitz realizes the mistake she's made.

Check availability of this book

More books by Philana Marie Boles

YS Book Level:

7th Grade

8th Grade

High Schoolers

YS Locations:

JY Fiction

YS Reviewers:

EF

YS Genres:

Books for Girls

Chick Lit

Friends
Realistic Fiction
Relationships

Source URL: <https://www.hplibrary.org/kids/reviews/glitz?page=18>