

July 25 2011

Akata Witch

Author:

Nnedi Okorafor-Mbachu

Reading Level: Grade 6-8

Sunny felt out of place when she and her family lived in the United States, she stands out even more in Nigeria. It isn't fair. She's 100% Igbo just like her parents and brothers, but Sunny is an albino so instead of having beautiful dark skin, hair and eyes, Sunny is so light her skin and hair look yellow.

When Sunny sees a strange vision in a candle's flame, she doesn't tell anyone. She's strange enough as it is. When Sunny is befriended by a classmate, she finds herself drawn into the very strangeness she is trying to avoid.

Check availability of this book

More books by Nnedi Okorafor-Mbachu

If you enjoyed this tale of young magicians you will probably enjoy:

So You Want to Be a Wizard by Diane Duane

The Amulet of Samarkand by Jonathan Stroud and

The Warrior Heir by Cinda Williams Chima

YS Book Level:

6th Grade

7th Grade

8th Grade

YS Locations:

JY Fiction

YS Reviewers:

SJS

YS Genres:

Fantasy

Friends

In Other Lands

Self Image

Supernatural

Source URL: <https://www.hplibrary.org/kids/reviews/akatawitch?page=15>