by Sandra Evans

Reading Level: Grades 4 - 6

Raul has attended the One of Our Kind boarding school for years, ever since his mother ran off leaving his father to care for him. His father stopped picking him up for the weekend a long time ago, but he has kept secret from the dean by pretending that his father insists on picking him up at the main road, not the school. Ugly: a memoir

by Robert Hoge

Reading Level: Grades 4-7

This memoir traces the life of Robert Hoge from the time he was born in 1972 until he turned 14. Robert was born with enormous tumor in the middle of his face. His eyes were on either side of his face and he had only holes for a nose. Besides the mass on his face, his legs were twisted and stunted. Mary, Robert's mother was horrified. She thought the baby looked like a monster.

She didn't want to take him home. Her doctor told her to put the baby away in an institution. Her husband, Vince, told her that it was up to her. For over a month the baby stayed at the hospital. Then Mary decided to ask their other kids. Vince and Mary told them about their baby brother; how he looked, his legs and the fact that he might also be mentally challenged. Then Mary pointed to each of her children and asked, "Should we bring Robert home?" All four voted yes. Robert had many operations. The tumor was removed. The unusable parts of his legs were amputated. He got prosthetics and learned to walk.] He went to school and made some friends. Not everyone was nice. He learned to do things his way and to be his own person in a world that thinks he is very, very ugly.
