

September 15 2011

Back When You Were Easier to Love

Author:

Emily Wing Smith

Reading Level: Ages 12 and up

Joy is a senior in high school who can't accept the fact that her boyfriend, Zan, elected to graduate early and leave for college without saying a word to her. Last year Joy had been the new girl in the boring Mormon town of Haven, Utah. It was to her old hometown in California that Zan decided to flee to escape the conformity and wholesomeness of Haven. But Joy is sure that he wouldn't want to rid himself of her. Although both Mormon, she and Zan were different. With break coming up, Joy convinces Zan's former best friend and golden boy, Noah, to drive her to California to find Zan.

Check availability of this book

More books by Emily Wing Smith

YS Book Level:

6th Grade

7th Grade

8th Grade

YS Locations:

JY Fiction

YS Reviewers:

HG

YS Genres:

Books for Girls

Chick Lit

Misfits

Relationships

Self Image